

Your Workforce Exposure Tracking Solution

Introducing Net Health Employee Health for COVID-19

Healthcare organizations have a pressing need for exposure tracking and reporting during the COVID-19 pandemic. Net Health Employee Health for COVID-19 gives you everything you need to support your employees and ensure your patients are better protected.

This solution is perfectly fitted to meet the unique requirements of hospital employee health departments.

Use Net Health Employee Health for COVID-19 to stay on top of your organization's needs:

- Perform multiple exposure tracking incidents
- Track employee symptoms by automating proactive follow-up contact
- Monitor employee requirements such as testing and quarantining
- Record and track responses to your COVID-19 screening questions
- Record and report on location of exposure for employees
- Monitor compliance to respirator mask fit program

THE NET HEALTH DIFFERENCE

Net Health is committed to supporting your employee health needs during this time. Employee Health for COVID-19 was created to help you stay on top of your organization's exposure tracking through streamlined documentation, implementation, and reporting.

To learn more,
contact us at

agilitysales
@nethealth.com

800.411.6281

40 24th Street, 1st Floor
Pittsburgh, PA 15222

